

SCHOOL-BASED HEALTH COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT SESSIONS

In spring 2017, the District of Columbia released new plans to expand school health and behavioral health services to schools across the city. The Department of Behavioral Health's (DBH) School Mental Health Program and the Department of Health's (DOH) School Health Services Program will both be implemented throughout the 2017-2018 school year.

To learn more, join DBH and DOH for an upcoming School-Based Health Community Engagement Session.
